Delegate Representation

The size of a local union's delegation is based on the size of its membership. If the Local Union pays per capita dues on 50 or fewer members it is entitled to 2 delegates; from 51 to 100 members – 3 delegates; from 101 to 250 members – 4 delegates; from 251 to 500 members – 5 delegates; and for each additional 500 members or major fraction thereof – 1 additional delegate.

For every delegate to which a local union is entitled, an alternate delegate may also be named.
